

LIU Chang

Associate Researcher, SICIP, Tongji University
Ph.D., Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich
chang.liu.0624@hotmail.com

Areas of Interest

Procedural Law, Evidence Law, Judicial System

Education

October 2012	June 2020	School of Law, Ludwig Maximilian University of Munich, Dr. jur. (Summa cum laude) Thesis: Missbrauch des Beweisantragsrechts im Strafprozess und Missbrauchsabwehr
September 2009	June 2012	School of Law, Fudan University, LL.M. Thesis: Interference with fundamental rights during undercover investigation: A study on German Law
September 2005	July 2009	School of Law, Fudan University, LL.B.

Publications

Book

Liu, Chang: Missbrauch des Beweisantragsrechts im Strafprozess und Missbrauchsabwehr, Duncker & Humblot, Berlin 2021.

Articles

1. Liu, Chang: The First Renovation of the Whole Protection of Industrial Property in the Era of Industry 4.0: A Commentary on the Second Act concerning the Simplification and Modernization of German Patent Law, Electronics Intellectual Property, 2021 (10).
2. Liu, Chang: Rape Conviction in spite of "Insufficient Evidence", Yenching Legal Studies, 2021 (2).
3. Liu, Chang: The Exchange of Personal Data between Criminal and Administrative Domains: An Analysis on the Practical Application of German Theory on Fundamental Rights, Nanjing University Law Review, 2017 Spring.
4. Liu, Chang: Purpose, Constraint and Legitimacy of Criminal Procedure: German Theory about Legitimacy of Criminal Procedure and Its Inspirational Value, Western Law Review, 2016 (6).
5. Liu, Chang: An Introduction of the Juvenile Justice System in Germany: Focus on the German Youth Courts

Act, Issues on Juvenile Crimes and Delinquency, 2016 (6).

6. Liu, Chang/Hu, Tu: More Female Judges: An Important Way to Adopt Gender Perspective in Judicial Process, Journal of Zhejiang Gongshang University, 2014 (5).

Lectures

Criminal Procedural Law, Civil Procedural Law, Evidence Law